THE MACKEY CASE.

Thomas J. Mackey yesterday filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in the Supreme Court of the District of berlain's Pain Balm. This brought al-Columbia with a view to secure the re 1-ase of his wife, Katherine S. Mackey, from the St. Elizabeth Asylum for the insane. The petition was granted by Chief Justice Bingham, and the matter will come up for hearing tomorrow.

Mrs. Mackey was committed to the asylum in May last by order of Justice Cole. The petition asking for the commitment of Mrs. Mackey was filed by relatives who alleged that she was of unsound mind and unable to care for herself. On the day set for the inquiry regarding her mental condition Mrs. Mackey did not appear in court in response to a summons. At that time she, it is said, was, and for some time previous had been, residing in Washington. When she did not appear at the time set for the inves-In all its stages tigation search was made for her. The bereshould be clean-officers in search of her were informed officers in search of her were informed that she had left the house where she had been stopping early one day and had not been seen since that time.

Although a strict watch had been kept in hopes of securing Mrs. Mackey's presence on the second date fixed for an inquiry as to her mental condition, it was not for a week or ten days later that she was heard of. Then it was learned that she was in Alexandria with her husband. It was some time after this that Mrs. Mackey was prought to Washington by relatives and surrendered to the authorities at St.

Elizabeth's Asylum. When Mrs. Mackey failed to appear at the inquiry ordered by the Su-preme Court of the District, it was supposed that she was influenced by her husband. This, however, Mr. Mackey emphatically denied. It was known, however, that Mr. Mackey contended that his wife's mental condition was not such as to warrant her commitment to the asylum. In consequence he determined to secure her reiease as soon as possible. In his peti-tion for habeas corpus he alleges that indigent person nor of unsound mind, nor was she at the time of her commit ment, and again, when committed she was a resident of the State of Virginia, and not of the District of Columbia. Thomas J. Mackey is about seventy years of age, and was formerly a judge in the Circuit Court of South Carolina. He also figured prominently in the politics of that State during the days of reconstruction. Mrs. Mackey is about twenty-four years of age, and a women of prepossessing appearance.

THOUSANDS SENT BACK INSANE .-A member of the Sixteenth United States infantry, in a letter to Mr. Charles Pearce, of Baltimore, express-es his disgust over "benevolent assimiation" as practiced by McKinley's army in the Philippines. He writes from Echague as follows:

"I was on detached service six weeks guarding pack trains through the mountains. We lost sixty-eight men at Salona with fever and smallpox, and here at Echague they have sent over 1,000 men back to the States within the last six months insane from tramping in the hot tropical sun.

"The strain on the nerves doing guard duty soon breaks them down in body and mind. I read in one of the newspapers that over three hundred officers have set in their resignations, but they have not been accepted. Their life here is not a bed of roses; they have to suffer as well as the privates. I don't think they will get many men for the army next summer when they reorganize it.

"deveral regiments have been sent to China. I don't think our regiment will be ordered there, and I hope not, for I have seen all the carnage and bloodshed I ever want to see. I guess I will have enough of military life by the ime my time is out."

A BOY TAKES REVENGE .- Mary Pow. ers, aged fourteen, while on her way to school at Paterson, N. J, yesterday, was shot through the right ear by John Dog and window FRAMES, MOULD Fleming, aged twelve. Mary and John attend the same school and are in the same class. Yesterday morning y ung Fleming did something for which his teacher reprimanded him and he ac-cused Mary Powers of having told on

Mr. James Reed struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physi-cians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave most a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated.
